Dear Students & Employees,

Northland College will undergo a comprehensive evaluation visit April 26-28, 2010, by a team representing The Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools.

Northland College has been accredited by the Commission since 1976 (as Northland Community College) and since 2000 as Northland Community and Technical College. Its accreditation is at the Associate's degree level and includes degree sites at other locations within the state. The Higher Learning Commission is one of six accrediting agencies in the United States that provide institutional accreditation on a regional basis. Institutional accreditation evaluates an entire institution and accredits it as a whole. Other agencies provide accreditation for specific programs. Accreditation is voluntary. The Commission accredits approximately 1100 institutions of higher education in a 19-state region. The Commission is recognized by the U.S. Department of Education.

For the past two years, Northland College has been engaged in a process of self-study, addressing the Commission's requirements and criteria for accreditation. The evaluation team will visit the institution to gather evidence that the self-study is thorough and accurate. The team will recommend to the Commission a continuing status for the college; following a review process, the Commission itself will take the final action.

The public is invited to submit comments regarding the college to the Commission's website or by mail, as noted below:
