

Disbursement of Work-Study & Financial Aid Funds

Northland Community and Technical College students receive their financial aid and work-study payments through direct deposit.

- You will need to have a checking or savings account in order to receive your funds.

A sample check from Bank of America. The check is for $20.00, payable to 'Your Name' at '1234 Oak, Anytown, USA'. The check number is 1001. The date is 19-2/1250. The bank name 'Bank of America' is printed in blue. The ACH R/T number is 123456789. The MICR line at the bottom contains the numbers 23456789, 00023456789, and 1001. Below the MICR line, four callout boxes identify the numbers: 'ABA Check Routing Number' (23456789), 'Account Number' (00023456789), 'Check Number' (1001), and 'ACH Routing/Transit Number' (123456789).

- Enroll in direct deposit using the college's eService website.
- www.northlandcollege.edu/eservices
- You will need your student ID and Northland eServices password.
- If you don't remember your eServices password follow the instructions on the web to recover.
- Work-study disbursements are every other Friday assuming your timesheets are submitted on time.
- Make certain that your work study supervisor signs and submits your timesheet on time!
- See page 2 for what to expect when enrolling in direct deposit!
