This book tells the stories of people, places, and events that defined the state.

FICTION BOOKS

- Er Erdrich, Louise The night watchman: a novel
Based on the extraordinary life of Louis Erdrich's grandfather Patrick Gourneau, who worked as a night watchman and carried the fight against Native dispossession from rural North Dakota all the way to Washington, with lightness and gravity, and unfolds with the elegant prose, sly humor, and depth of feeling of a literary master.
- Ko Kopernik, Raki The things you left: stories
Sometimes humorous, sometimes sad; an exploration of love, addiction, relationships, and loss.
- So Soukup, Fredrick Bliss
In search of meaning amid America's sedated upper-middle class, a cynical college graduate forgoes medical school and moves to inner-city Chicago. When he falls in love with a woman uncompromisingly devoted to her community, he finds himself caught between two lives, one he does not want and one he cannot have.
- Wa Washburn, Kawai Strong Sharks in the time of saviors
In 1995 Kailua-Kona, Hawaii, on a rare family vacation, seven-year-old Nainoa Flores falls overboard a cruise ship into the Pacific Ocean. When a shiver of sharks appears in the water, everyone fears for the worst. But instead, Noa is gingerly delivered to his mother in the jaws of a shark, marking his story as the stuff of legends.
