| 305.9 Gh | Gharib, Malaka | I was their American dream: a graphic memoir
Malaka's story is a heartfelt tribute to the American immigrants who have invested their future in the promise of the American dream. |
| 306.766 Sw | Edited by Ryan Schuessler | Sweeter voices still: an LGBTQ anthology from Middle America
This collection features queer voices you might recognize-- established and successful writers and thinkers--and others you might not--people who don't think of themselves as writers at all. |
| 618.24 Kn | Knisley, Lucy | Kid gloves: nine months of careful chaos (graphic novel)
This moving, hilarious, and surprisingly informative memoir not only follows Lucy's personal transition into motherhood but also illustrates the history and science of reproductive. |
| 741.5 Ra | Rabagliati, Michel | Paul goes fishing (graphic novel)
Even the mundane holds beauty and meaning in this compassionate story of expectation, disappointment, and wonder. |
| 818.6 Co | Edited by Amanda Page | The Columbus anthology
Columbus, Ohio, is a place whose identity centers on its supposed lack of identity—a challenging and an energizing read. |
| 818.6 Da | Edited by Shannon Shelton Miller | The Dayton anthology
In this vital collection diverse, authentic Dayton voices are collected, amplified, and celebrated. |
| 818.6 Lo | Edited by Erin Keane | The Louisville anthology
Evocative and intimate, the essays and poems collected in this book knit a new story of Louisville's place in the world. |
| 977.0496 Bl | Edited by Terrion L. Williamson | Black in the middle: an anthology of the Black Midwest
Filled with compelling personal narratives, thought-provoking art, and searing commentaries, this anthology explores the various meanings and experiences of blackness throughout the Rust Belt, the Midwest, and the Great Plains. |
